

KEY CONNECTIONS

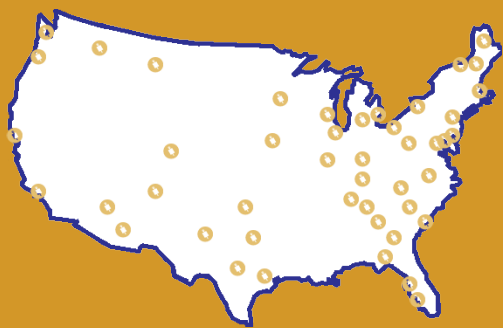

The PHI BETA KAPPA Society

SAVE THE DATE

This September 7 - 10, 2017, Phi Beta Kappa associations will be hosting events specifically designed to welcome you into the Φ BK community and introduce you to the high-achieving network of individuals in your area.

Be sure to look for updates at www.pbk.org/KeyConnections to see what events are happening around the country.

Φ BK ASSOCIATIONS

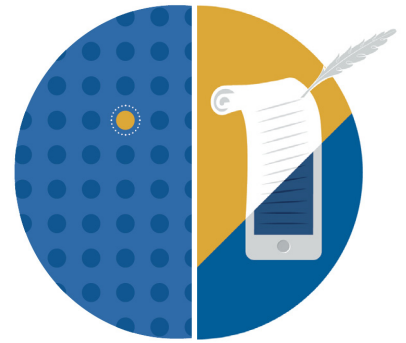

Find your local association, follow national initiatives, and discover the benefits of Φ BK membership at www.pbk.org.

Congratulations on your induction to The Phi Beta Kappa Society!

A RARE HONOR

This distinction and your love of learning will help guide you through a successful and fulfilling life of the mind. As one of the most accomplished arts and sciences students of 2017, you should feel extremely proud of your accomplishments as you join a nationwide network of over 500,000 members.

A PART OF HISTORY

You may be wondering, “What’s next?” Phi Beta Kappa is a connection that extends beyond your undergraduate career and beyond campus. Our nationwide network of 48 alumni associations ensures that wherever you’re going after graduation, there will be a community waiting to welcome you.

Here are some steps you can take immediately in order to stay connected with Phi Beta Kappa:

- Join your local association, and mark your calendar for their Key Connections event and other programs.
- Update your contact information by contacting support@pbk.org.
- Add Phi Beta Kappa to your resume to make you stand out from the crowd.
- Join the nationwide LinkedIn network, and follow Phi Beta Kappa on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.
- Use the National Arts & Sciences Initiative toolkit to take a stand and advocate for the arts and sciences.

Again, congratulations on this honor and welcome to Phi Beta Kappa.

Frederick M. Lawrence
Secretary/CEO