

In Figure 1337, there are four pathways that start from the carboxylic acid and end with the ester.
 I. Assuming acidic conditions, outline the reagents/conditions needed for these four transformations.
 II. All four transformations can be carried out under basic conditions. What are those reagents/conditions?

