Transporting Bodies and Minds: 18th and 19th Century Travel an interdisciplinary graduate student conference

Saturday 15th September, 2012

Panels will be held at 9:00, 10:45, 1:30 and 3:15 in 3222 and 3241 Angell Hall

The keynote address will be given by

Kate Flint, USC
Provost Professor of English and Art History
“Moving Pictures: Art, Internationalism, and Rosa Bonheur’s The Horse Fair” at 4:30pm in 3222 Angell Hall

For a detailed schedule, see our event website: http://www.umich.edu/~ncf/conf.index.htm

With thanks to the following groups at the University of Michigan:
Dept. of English Committee on Scholarly and Creative Activities
History of Art Dept.
International Institute Fund for Conferences and Workshops
Rackham Dean’s Strategic Funding
European History Workshop