A Jew in the Roman Bathhouse:
The Poetics of Cultural Interaction in the Roman Mediterranean

Yaron Z. Eliav (University of Michigan)

Table of Contents

Introduction

The Miracle of Water: The Emergence of the Baths as a Cultural Institution

A Jewish Institution? – How did Jews Feel about and Interact with the Roman Bath?

Life in a Provincial (Jewish) Bath

Maintenance of the Bath: (balan, ambati, dhmosion etc.); oil, fire, ownership

The Naked Rabbi and the Beautiful Goddess: Engaging Sculpture in the Public Bathhouse

An Idolatrous place? Or Were the Baths A Pagan Institution?

A Social Laboratory

A Sinful Place: Nudity and Sex in the Baths

A Scary Place: Jewish Magic in the Roman Bathhouse