

THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

CAAS

CENTER FOR AFROAMERICAN AND AFRICAN STUDIES

MARTIN LUTHER KING/ROSA PARKS/CAESAR CHAVEZ
VISITING PROFESSORS PROGRAM

CAAS MINI-COURSE 324

"BLACK EDUCATIONAL ACHIEVEMENT OVER THE LIFE-COURSE"

March 3, 1988 (Thursday)

4-6 p.m. 140 Lorch
(The Preschool and Early Childhood Years)

DR. MARGARET BEALE SPENCER

Associate Professor of Educational Studies
Emory University

"Cognition, Identity and Social Development as Correlates of Black Children's Academic Skills"

March 10, 1988 (Thursday)

4-6 p.m., Auditorium B, Angell Hall
(The Elementary Years)

DR. REGINALD CLARK

Independent Consultant
Claremont, California

"Family Life and School Achievement:
Why Poor Black Children Succeed or Fail"

March 17, 1988 (Thursday)

4-6 p.m. 140 Lorch Hall
(The Middle or Junior High Years)

DR. BRUCE R. HARE

Associate Professor of Sociology
State University of NY-Stony Brook

"Structural Inequality, Educational Disadvantage and the Endangered Status of Black Youth"

March 24, 1988 (Thursday)

4-6 p.m., 140 Lorch Hall
(The Senior High Years)

DR. EDGAR G. EPPS

Professor of Urban Education
University of Chicago

"Correlates of Academic Achievement Among Black Youth in America"

March 31, 1988 (Thursday)

4-6 p.m., Auditorium B, Angell Hall
(The College Years)

DR. WALTER ALLEN

Associate Professor of Sociology
The University of Michigan

"Institutional Context, Interpersonal Relationships, Personality Orientation and Black Student Academic Achievement in College"

April 14, 1988 (Thursday)

4-6 p.m., 140 Lorch Hall
(The Graduate or Professional Years)

DR. VINCENT P. FRANKLIN

Associate Professor of History
Arizona State University

"The Talented Tenth:
Afro-American Intellectuals in the Twentieth Century"