

CAAS

The University of Michigan
Center for Afroamerican and African Studies

200 West Engineering Building
550 East University, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48106-1092
(313) 764-5513

 * * * * NEW CAAS COURSE * * * * ***

WINTER TERM - 1990

AAS 358 (SECTION 001)
ISSUES IN BLACK WORLD STUDIES: BLACK IN MICHIGAN
(Black Life and History in Michigan)

De Witt Dykes, Instructor
Tuesdays 9:00 to Noon
3 Credit Hours

This course will survey the experiences of Blacks in the State of Michigan, emphasizing trends, events and activities significant for their local, statewide, national and/or international significance. Topics covered will include slavery in Michigan, Black migration and geographical distribution, the development of Black churches, organizations and community institutions, Black leaders, Black business developments, occupational opportunities and the development of Black urban workers, Black professionals, the activities of Black women, health care, housing patterns and changes in education, social and economic status from the 19th through the 20th centuries.

Special attention will be given to Black involvement in politics and civil rights activities from the 1800's to the present and how suburbanization and technological change have affected Blacks since World War II.

YOU MAY REGISTER FOR THIS COURSE AT CRISP

GIVE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION

DIVISION NO: 311
COURSE NO: 358.001