

ISSUES IN BLACK WORLD STUDIES:
RICHARD WRIGHT

Professor Robert Chrisman
Tuesdays and Thursdays
4:00-5:30 pm
Location TBA

AAS458 Section 2 (three credit hours). Prereq.: AAS274, or 338, or instructor's permission. Meets with English 482. We will read Wright's major texts, tracing his origins in the naturalist school of fiction, the Marxist and Black nationalist school of fiction, the Marxist and Black nationalist consciousness in his works, his later Freudian and existentialist thought, and his treatment of the psycho-sexual dynamics of racism.
