Interested in a research experience next summer?

Gain the experience, hone your academic skills, and prepare for graduate school and beyond.

The Digital Islamic Studies Curriculum (DISC) Summer Research Institute offers undergraduate students at Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA) universities the opportunity to engage in scholarship, develop research skills invaluable in academia and beyond, and network with accomplished scholars for a week on the campus of the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Participants in the program:

- have access to faculty and peer critique process, and receive mentorship from experts in field;
- learn the approaches, issues, and research methodologies utilized in the field of Islamic studies and related disciplines
- gain the tools to be competitive in the graduate school application process and beyond.

For details, visit: digitalislam.umich.edu/dsri

The DISC Summer Research Institute is made possible through the generous support of The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.