- 03a,b Thamnophis radix* (Plains garter snake),
Drymarchon corais (Indigo snake)
specimens in alcohol
Museum of Zoology, Div. of Reptiles and Amphibians

Ruthven's first research interest – and the subject of his first scientific publication – was the garter snake found in Michigan and the US. The other specimen in alcohol shows the head of the indigo snake caught in Colombia in the Santa Marta mountains in 1913.
