

Philip D'Anieri
Lecturer IV
University of Michigan
philipjd@umich.edu

Education

- 2007 Ph.D. in Urban and Regional Planning, University of Michigan
Dissertation: "Regional Reform in Historic Perspective: The Development of Metropolitan Planning Institutions in Detroit, 1950-1990"
- 2004 Master of Urban Planning, University of Michigan
- 1990 Bachelor of Arts in Political Theory, Michigan State University

Active Research

The Appalachian Trail: A Biography

This book project traces evolving American conceptions of the environment in the history of the 2100-mile footpath from Maine to Georgia.

Teaching

2010-present

Lecturer III/IV, Urban and Regional Planning Program and Program in the Environment, University of Michigan

ENVIRON 350	The Built Environment
ENVIRON 398	Environmental Internship Program
ENVIRON 405	Urban Sprawl: Policy and Politics
URP 423	Introduction to Urban and Environmental Planning
URP 603	Capstone Studio

2007-2010

Intermittent Lecturer, University of Michigan

Funding

2018

Summer Fellowship, Institute for the Humanities, University of Michigan

Funding and a professional workshop to support research and writing of two chapters of the Appalachian Trail book.

2014-17

National Arts Strategy, Ross School of Business, University of Michigan

Developed and delivered a curriculum on creative placemaking for an executive education program serving two global cohorts of arts executives.

2013-15

Transforming Learning for a Third Century, Office of the Provost, University of Michigan

As part of a multi-disciplinary team of 4, developed an online learning environment to structure and support undergraduate internships.

2013-14

Lecturers Professional Development Fund, Center for Research on Learning and Teaching, University of Michigan

Travel award to support Appalachian Trail archival research

2002-2006

Graduate Research Fellowship, National Science Foundation

Three years of full funding for doctoral study

Professional Experience

2006-2010

Program Director, Ann Arbor Area Community Foundation
Directed grantmaking and convened community leadership.

2000

Deputy Staff Director, Michigan State Senate, Lansing, Mich.
Supervised staff of 30 providing policy analysis and other support to state legislators; analyzed land use policy.

1995-1999

Communications Director, Michigan State Senate, Lansing, Mich.
Wrote and edited press releases, position papers and newsletters; provided strategic counsel on media initiatives; supervised staff of 7.

1991-1995

News Reporter, WDET Public Radio, Detroit
Researched and reported news and feature stories on a wide range of topics; contributed frequently to NPR and other national outlets.

Peer-Reviewed Publication

2002

"A 'Fruitful Hypothesis?': The Regional Planning Association of America's Hopes for Technology," Journal of Planning History.

Book Review

2002

"When Corporations Leave Town: The Costs and Benefits of Metropolitan Job Sprawl," Journal of the American Planning Association.

Conference Papers

2005

"Regional Reform in Historic Perspective: The Development of Metropolitan Planning Institutions in Detroit, 1960-1990," presented to the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning, Kansas City and the Society of American City and Regional Planning History, Miami.

2004

"Regionally Planning Sprawl: Water in Metropolitan Detroit, 1960-1985," presented to the annual conference of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning, Portland.

Competitive Seminar

2005

Fulbright Seminar in Regional Development, Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration

Awards

2012

Outstanding Instructor Award, Program in the Environment, University of Michigan