Welcome

It takes more than glowing adjectives to describe the Ann Arbor area. Although you may travel here for an event – a football game, the Art Fair, a conference – you'll discover something more. This is where people have made their best creative ideas come to life through events, shops, business, art, and music. There is evidence at every turn that life is different here.

Ranked Among the Best

Ann Arbor has been singled out as a high-ranking American city year after year in numerous categories. Here are a few examples:

"Best Midwest Food Towns,"
Ann Arbor #3, Midwest Living
"America's Best Main Streets,"
Ann Arbor, Fordor's Travel
"25 Most Beautiful Cities in America,"
Ann Arbor, Budget Travel
"Most Walkable Cities," Ann Arbor #4, Governing.com
"10 Coolest Cities in the Midwest,"
Ann Arbor, MSN Travel

Arts and Culture in Abundance

Although geographically small, the area is renowned for its cultural offerings. Its art galleries; variety of museums; and music, dance, and theatrical performances deliver a depth and breadth of experiences on par with large metropolitan areas.

The Cobblestone Farm (above) provides a view of past rural life in Washtenaw County.

The University of Michigan Museum of Art (center) is considered one of the finest university art museums in the U.S. At the Yankee Air Museum (far right) you can explore aviation displays and a fleet of military aircraft.

Fine Dining to Simple Favorites

Those looking for a culinary adventure will appreciate the nearly 300 restaurants within a 20-mile radius of the Ann Arbor area. You'll find whatever dining experience you are seeking—from townie-frequented eateries to nationally known restaurants. Zingerman's Delicatessen (left) is famous for its award-winning sandwiches and unique array of food items. Alfresco dining, popular in the warmer months, turns city streets into outdoor cafes.

For the Fun of It

The award-winning Ann Arbor Art Fair (center bottom) draws an annual crowd of nearly 500,000, transforming the streets of downtown into a gigantic outdoor art gallery. Fall's football Saturdays attract more than 100,000 fans who gather at "The Big House" to watch the Michigan Wolverines (left).

What happens before and after the game, it's just as important as the game itself.

Arts & Culture

Arts and cultural activities let you step away from whatever it is that makes everyday life a little too ordinary, or a little too intense. Looking for a way to lose track of time? Enjoy a live performance and visual art or explore history and science in the area's many museums.

Live Music and Dance

Small venues are an essential part of the area's performing arts scene. The historic Michigan Theater (right) alternates between movies and exceptional live concerts. The intimate Kerrytown Concert House showcases an eclectic mix of musical talent.

As the area's largest venue, the EMU Convocation Center in Ypsilanti hosts mega star concerts. Throughout the academic year, the University Musical Society spotlights national and international performers with an emphasis on quality and diversity. Crowd-pleasing entertainment takes the stage during the three weeks of Summer Festival (above and far right center).

Theater

Two mainstays on the theater scene are the Purple Rose Theatre Company (left) and the Performance Network Theatre. Both deliver Broadway-quality productions season after season, delighting audiences with gripping drama, comedies, and classics for an exhilarating experience.

It doesn't stop there. EMU, U-M, and Concordia University host student productions that showcase amazing young talent. Among a group of small theater companies is the Wild Swan that caters to school age audiences.

Museums and Libraries

The area's museums and libraries come in all sizes and shapes. The Law Library at U-M's Law School (left) houses a collection of more than 1,030,000 volumes. For a dose of prehistoric life, visit the U-M Natural History Museum. There are also many museums devoted to local and automotive history that are the pride of the area's outlying communities.

The University of Michigan Museum of Art (center left) is the centerpiece of the area's art museums. Its dramatic new galleries highlight works drawn from its collections of more than 18,000 pieces.

Attractions

Like a large thriving metropolis, the area has an extensive list of varied attractions. But here the destinations are more accessible, the people are more approachable, and the streets are friendlier. And the opportunities to experience something new ... much greater.

A Treat for the Senses.

Colorful flowers and produce, fresh bakery items, tantalizing deli aromas, and beautiful handmade items allure shoppers to the many local farmers markets. A trip to the largest one, the Ann Arbor Farmers Market, has become a tradition for locals and return visitors. On Sunday mornings, the space is transformed into an Artisan Market. Don't miss Zingerman's Delicatessen, just across the street, for a fabulous breakfast or lunch and browsing the array of food items in this nationally famous deli.

Try Something New. See Something Different.

Heard the sound of a 12-ton bell? Been behind the scenes at The Big House? Discovered what really goes into a JIFFY mix? Heard the roar of fast cars on a dragway? You can! You may need to plan ahead so you won't miss a scheduled tour or event at these and other attractions.

Places to Play When the Sun Goes Down.

Wind down or wind up. Watch sports or heat up the dance floor. Go in search of a new craft cocktail or a favorite beer at the Arbor Brewing Company Microbrewery in Ypsilanti (left center), one of the area's eight microbreweries. Music lovers won't want to miss the Ark. Almost 300 nights a year, this premier venue for acoustic music delivers live performances.

Planning to Come With the Family?

With the area's amazing variety of child-centric activities, you can design a vacation that is perfect for your family. Discover whimsical urban fairy doors (left), explore an interactive science museum or a reptile zoo, or splash down at a water park extravaganza. Find even more to do on the following pages.

THE BIG FOUR HUNDRED

When did we start taking life so seriously? Fun is supposed to be fun. And it is, if you know where to find it.

Like the Big 400.

That's 400-square miles of Southern Michigan at its finest, from the Waterloo and Pinckney recreation areas to the upper reaches of the River Raisin.

When you need a little more fun in your fun, there's one place to go. Not so far off the interstate, but worlds away from the everyday.

EASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

Eastern Michigan University was founded in 1849. Its beautiful and historic main campus is located in Ypsilanti. With 23,500 students, EMU is the state's fastest growing public university for new freshmen over the last three years. EMU students are better prepared academically in overall GPA/ACT scores and its Honors College has doubled in size to 1,267 since 2011. Princeton Review has named EMU among its "Best Midwestern Colleges" for 11 consecutive years.

As the heart of student life, the EMU Student Center (above) is a favorite place to study, take care of business, socialize, eat on the go, and attend events, lectures, and exhibits.

Because it exemplifies modern information technology, Halle Library (left) is often referred to as a "cybrary." Even the carillon is computerized.

Major recent main campus improvements include classrooms, residence halls and technology, and a $90 million Science Complex.

EMU's dynamic performing arts program showcases student talent in venues ranging from intimate to spacious.

The centerpiece of the new Science Complex addition (below) is its dramatic planetarium. At the basement level, a rock garden is a unique focal point.

Mega star concerts, large-scale trade shows, as well as EMU athletics are among the events on the calendar of the spacious, state-of-the-art Convocation Center (right).

Ford Gallery (bottom center) displays the works of artists from all over the world and is a cultural highlight for the University and community.

For more information about EMU, visit www.emich.edu. To schedule a tour, call (800) GO.TO.EMU.

Michigan

The University of Michigan is one of the country's top public institutions. As such, it offers visitors a wealth of things to see and do. The best way to get a feel for the University is to experience it firsthand: walk through the buildings, explore the campus, and take in the sights and delights of Ann Arbor. To arrange a group tour, call (734) 647-5692. For conference and event services, call (734) 764-2000.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

The William W. Cook Law Quadrangle (top), the "Quad," was the first self-contained law school in the country with living facilities, classrooms, faculty offices, practice courtrooms, and dining facilities in the same complex. The buildings' exteriors were modeled after the Tudor-Gothic style of Cambridge and Oxford.

Located on the Diag, the heart of central campus, is the Burton Memorial Tower (center right). It houses the Baird Carillon, which contains 55 bells, weighing from 21 pounds to 12 tons.

The expanded Museum of Art's (right) galleries display works from its 18,000-piece collection. The U-M Museum of Natural History and Planetarium (top center) is a popular destination for researchers as well as the curious – of all ages.

For more information about all aspects of the University, go to www.umich.edu.

The U-M stadium (left) is known as "The Big House®" for good reason. It's the largest football stadium in the country. Opportunities to enjoy exciting athletic competition extend through all seasons thanks to the University's 25 intercollegiate sports for both men and women.

The University of Michigan Health System (below) is one of the largest healthcare complexes in the world. It has been the site of many groundbreaking accomplishments and technological advancements since the Medical School first opened its doors in 1850.

Between Matthaei Botanical Gardens (above) and the Nichols Arboretum (top left inset) there are 475 acres of trails through natural plant habitats and flowering gardens. Matthaei includes an indoor conservatory and facilities for classes and events.

For more than 100 years, Hill Auditorium (bottom left) has been treasured for its architectural significance as well as its superb acoustics. Its colorful history includes hosting many world-renowned performers.

Shopping

Yes, we have very nice malls with familiar stores galore, but shopping here is more about the unexpected: unique boutiques, galleries, antique stores, artisans markets, and specialty shops. Step in and you're likely to find something that catches your eye.

Main Street

Downtown Ann Arbor (www.mainstreetannarbor.org), is a haven for art and collectibles as well as a variety of boutiques and bookstores. Galleries featuring unique imports and original pieces are interspersed with fine restaurants, coffee shops, and nightlife. Rock, Paper, Scissors (bottom row) is a one-of-a-kind gift shop specializing in stationery items.

Kerrytown

State Street

The State Street Area (www.a2state.com) is the "entertainment hub" of Ann Arbor with its performance venues, movie theaters, and several museums. You'll also find a diverse mix of clothing stores, bookstores, and great casual eateries (above). Nickels Arcade (center), one of the first indoor shopping plazas in Michigan, contains a corridor of quaint little shops.

South University

Across "The Diag," an intersection of walkways in the heart of U-M's campus, is South University (www.a2southu.com) with blocks of casual restaurants and assorted shops that students frequent.

Shopping Malls

Briarwood Mall is the area's premier enclosed mall anchored by Macy's, JCPenney, Sears, and Von Maur with more than 110 other retailers including Apple, Sephora, Banana Republic, Williams-Sonoma, and Pottery Barn. Consult www.shopbriarwood.com for a store directory.

Arborland Center, on Washtenaw Avenue at US-23, includes nearly 30 national, regional, and local stores and businesses including these favorites: Starbucks, Old Navy, Nordstrom Rack, DSW, and Noodles & Company. You'll find the entire list at www.arborlandcenter.com.

The recently opened Arbor Hills, located on Washtenaw Avenue and Platt Rd., adds an upscale shopping experience to the area. High-end retailers – Anthropologie, lululemon, Brooks Brothers, The North Face, and Madewell – together with a dozen other stores and restaurants make this a destination for sophisticated shoppers.

Ypsilanti

Ypsilanti, about five miles east of Ann Arbor, has two unique shopping areas. Depot Town (www.visitypsinow.com) is a gloriously restored 19th century shopping and dining destination. Downtown Ypsilanti features boutiques, gift shops, and venues with live music. Mix (above) offers an artistically, hand-picked collection of clothing, accessories, and more. Materials Unlimited is a "don't miss" for the antique lover or do-it-yourselfer with its incredible assortment of architectural antiques.

Recreation

No need to pack your mountain climbing gear or your surfboard. The greater Ann Arbor area's recreational opportunities take advantage of its diverse environments: urban amenities, open spaces, and lakes and rivers. Whether you are in the mood to try something new or enjoy your favorite forms of recreation, count on having a wealth of options.

Cheer 'Em On!

In Ann Arbor, fall means football. The legendary Big House (above), seats up to 109,901 for each home game with thousands of fans gathering for pre-game tailgating. In addition, U-M and EMU sports teams engage spectators year-round with schedules that span almost 50 varsity teams. Add to that the 40-game season of USA Hockey and you have many opportunities to watch young talent compete.

If you are into professional sports, you can join Detroit's enthusiastic fans for baseball, football, hockey, and basketball. Those stadiums are located approximately 45 minutes from Ann Arbor.

"Fast is fun!" claim auto racing enthusiasts who fill the stands at the Michigan International Speedway (MIS) or Milan Dragway. It's a chance to enjoy the spectacle and camaraderie that go with auto racing.

Outdoor Play

Visitors are often surprised by the quantity and caliber of outdoor sports available an easy distance from downtown. There are more than 15 public golf courses within a 25-mile radius of the city. Within the same distance there are dozens of beautiful, impeccably maintained parks for biking, hiking, fishing, swimming, boating, and picnicking – the largest being the Waterloo Recreation Area with more than 20,000 acres. The "Argo Cascades" (far left, bottom row) add excitement to kayaking on the Huron River. Runners don creative outfits for the annual Color Run (left). Many areas are also havens for winter sports such as cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, ice fishing, and ice skating.

Year-Round Activities

Inclement weather can be an opportunity to test your skill at rock climbing (bottom center) or Whirly Ball. There are many fitness centers with classes and facilities open to the public for a walk-in fee where you can satisfy your yearning for a challenging workout, a yoga class, indoor swimming, or court sports. Best to check on-line for more information on area fitness centers.

Area Golf Guide

Wherever you are staying in the greater Ann Arbor area, golf courses are plentiful and easily accessible. These green, rolling, treed havens have golfers counting down the weeks of winter. With the various terrains, configurations, and degrees of difficulty represented by the long list of courses, you'll discover many options that suit your game.

Eagle Crest Golf Club

1275 S. Huron St., Ypsilanti,
(734) 487-2441.
www.eaglecrestresort.com

Eagle Crest features a championship 18-hole golf course rated four stars by Golf Digest Magazine since 2004. Our awe-inspiring scenic par-72 course is considered a fair yet challenging course and suits both the novice and seasoned player. Fine tune your game on our new Short Game Practice Area that includes a 6,000 sq. ft. putting green and a 3,000 sq. ft. chipping green with bentgrass fairways and bluegrass roughs. Corporate golf outings are just one of our specialties, and we'll strive to exceed your expectations, so please call our Director of Golf for additional information.

Fox Hills Golf & Banquet Center

8768 North Territorial Rd., Plymouth,
(734) 453-7272.
www.foxhills.com

Fox Hills is a 63-hole public course and banquet center featuring three distinctly different courses – an 18-hole championship course, the Golden Fox, a 27-hole course, the Fox Classic, and an 18-hole championship par three course, the Strategic Fox. It features a state-of-the art Learning Center with PGA professionals and an expanded driving range and practice areas. Winner of "MGCOA's Best Public Golf Course of the Year!"

Huron Hills Golf Course

3465 E. Huron River Dr., Ann Arbor,
(734) 794-6246.
www.a2golf.org

Historic Huron Hills Golf Course is a par 67 course, designed by Thomas Bendelow and opened in 1922. This scenic course with its vast topography and mature trees offers magnificent views of the Huron River from some of the highest points in Ann Arbor. We're proud of the new 7-hole Wee-Tee course for kids and beginners. In addition, we're host to the annual Herb Fowler Memorial Junior Amateur Championship. Beginning in 2015, we'll offer FootGolf for all ages (no experience necessary).

Leslie Park Golf Course

2120 Traver Rd., Ann Arbor,
(734) 794-6245.
www.a2golf.org

The award-winning course is rated 4.5 stars (out of 5) from Golf Digest and has received its top honor as the "Best Municipal Course in Michigan." In 2014, LPGC was voted for the fourth time the "Best Public Golf Course in Washtenaw County" by the readers of e-Current magazine. LPGC is a beautiful championship course set on the rolling hills of northeast Ann Arbor and a "must play" in southeast Michigan.

Pierce Lake Golf Course

1175 South Main St., Chelsea,
(734) 475-5858.
Email: plgc@ewashtenaw.org
www.piercelakegolf.com

Rated four stars by Golf Digest, Pierce Lake is a challenging, 18-hole championship layout that combines woods, water, wetlands, and rolling terrain. Five tee options accommodate all levels of golfers, measuring 6,914 yards from the tips. Hole #18 is featured in 1001 Golf Holes You Must Play Before You Die, by Jeff Barr. Pierce Lake Golf Course was also featured on the Golf Channel's Destination Golf.

Pine View Golf Course

5820 Stony Creek Rd., Ypsilanti,
(734) 481-0500.
www.pineviewgc.com

Conveniently located between US-23 and I-94, Pine View's 27-hole golf course gives players the enjoyable experience and beautiful illusion of playing on a traditional Northern Michigan course. Open to the public, it also offers two practice greens, a driving range, and a spacious snack bar and banquet room that can accommodate the needs of individual golfers as well as large groups.

Reddeman Farms Golf Club

555 S. Dancer Rd., Chelsea,
(734) 475-3020.
Email: reddemanfarms@netzero.net
www.reddemanfarms.com

Reddeman Farms Golf Club features a scenic, player-friendly layout in a peaceful country setting just west of Ann Arbor. It has a full-service restaurant, pro shop, and practice range. Its staff will gladly coordinate your golf outing and banquet needs. The Club is also available for events with a seating capacity of 180.

Stonebridge Golf Club by Arthur Hills

1825 Clubhouse Dr., Ann Arbor,
(734) 429-8383.
www.stonebridgegolfclub.net

Stonebridge Golf Club, a daily-fee, 18-hole championship golf course, offers varying terrain, strategically placed bunkers, and natural use of existing wetlands and wooded areas – a challenge for any golfer. A driving range, practice green, pro shop, lessons, and a full-service bar and grille complete your golfing experience. Stonebridge offers a banquet space and outdoor patio and bar for your next event.

MICHIGAN'S #1 BREWPUB
IN BEER SALES SINCE 2006

Since 1995, Grizzly Peak has been Ann Arbor's landmark brewpub and gathering place for fresh beer and great food. We brew our award-winning beers the same way we create our quality food — with the finest ingredients and care.

Old German Bierkeller is our tribute to the original restaurant which occupied our historic building prior to 1995.
